

CHRONICLE

APRIL 2022

THE ANNUAL PLACEMENT DAY 2022 WAS CELEBRATED WITH FULL ENTHUSIASM AS THE JUBILANT STUDENTS WERE ALL SMILES GRABBING THEIR DREAM JOB IN THE DREAM COMPANY AND YES SOME WITH EVEN MULTIPLE OFFERS!

The Annual Placement Day 2022 was celebrated with full enthusiasm as the jubilant students were all smiles grabbing their dream job in the dream company and yes some with even multiple offers! 800+ companies for placement, 8500+ job offers, and the highest package of 40.9 lacs. Congratulating the students, Satnam Singh Sandhu, Chairman, CGC Landran encouraged them to continue reaching for the stars. In his address, he emphasized the importance of growing in life and staying connected with their Alma mater. Rashpal Singh Dhaliwal, President, CGC Landran also lauded the students.

The Department of Computer Applications organized a workshop on Mobile Development Technology for the students of MCA and BCA. The session was conducted by Mr. Ranjit Sajwan, Project Manager (Mobile Division) CS Soft Solutions along with Abhishek Sood, Business Head, CS Soft Solutions to make the students oriented with the different platforms and software used to develop the mobile applications. With the future of online highly integrated with the ever-increasing mobile usage, the session proved to be very engaging and informative.

Talk 12 of the International Speaker Series by the Department of International Affairs once again aided students of Hotel management on how the professional career options in the field of Hospitality can make a big difference in their lives with the right planning and guidance. The speakers shared the facts, figures, and all the related information of import in context to the Scottish hospitality industry. The faculty, as well as the students, thoroughly enjoyed the informative and insightful talk.

CHANDIGARH GROUP OF COLLEGES
Building Careers. Transforming Lives.

INTERNATIONAL SPEAKER SERIES
by
Department of International Affairs & Department of Hotel Management

Talk 12
Highland Hospitality:
How Scotland delivers a Quality Guest Experience

Ms. Gemma McKenzie
(Programme leader for hospitality management,
University of Highlands and Islands, UK)

Speakers:

Ms. Shirley Simpson
(Lecturer in hospitality Management,
Professional cookery and Business,
University of Highlands and Islands, UK)

The Department of Computer Science Engineering at COE got selected as a Remote Center of NITTTR, Chandigarh (National Institute of Technical Teachers Training and Research, Chandigarh) for conducting a Week Short Term Course (STC) on the topic of Machine Learning using Python. The faculty and the students got an insight into the advancements in the field of coding and programming and its ever-increasing scope in the digital world. The resource persons for the session were Er. Shano Solanki, Associate Prof.,

CSE, NITTTR Chandigarh.

Dr. Sarbjeet Singh, Professor CSE, UIET, Chandigarh, Dr. Mahipal Jadeja, Assistant Professor, MNIT, Jaipur, Dr. Gaurav Kumar, Magma Research and Consultancy Limited, Ambala, Ms. Shruti Wadhwa Khatri, Director, Hash Logic Infosec Pvt. Ltd, Chandigarh. The session was devised to enhance the programming skills in android along with improving application development with machine learning and python

Navdeep Singh student of Chandigarh College of Education became the only one from Punjab among 500 candidates to be selected for the national level Cultural Talen Searc Scholarshi Scheme (CTSSS) being promoted by the Centre for Cultural Resources and Training (CCRT), Dwarka, New Delhi since 1982. Under the Scheme of Award of Scholarship to Young Artistes (SYA) in different cultural talents in the field of Classical music, Navdeep has won a scholarship for 2 years amounting to Rs. 2.4 lacs besides bringing laurels to the Institute.

A practical exposure always makes a better impact and understanding along with theoretical learning, thus to appraise the Hotel management students on the same an industrial visit was conducted to the American chain of hotels based in Atlanta, and a brand of InterContinental Hotels Group, Holiday Inn. The visit helped the students understand the working environment of the front office, housekeeping, and F&B services along with getting acquainted with the workstations. assembly lines, kitchen equipment as well as the upkeep standards of the hotel.

With a constant endeavor to upscale practical learning, a visit for the students of the Commerce Department was organized to Mahindra Swaraj Tractors Limited, the second-largest tractor manufacturer in the country. The students got well versed in the operations and production-related processes of manufacturing along with the costing, revenue models, and supply chain of the organization. It proved to be a very insightful visit!

Chandigarh College of Hotel Management & Catering Technology conducted a one-day awareness camp at Government High Smart School, Landran in collaboration with ACIC, RISE wherein the students and faculty made the adolescent girls aware of girl health stressing the importance of breakfast, lunch, iron-rich recipes prepared with local millets of Punjab as they also help prevent anemia. The prepared dishes were distributed among the girls present in the camp who thoroughly enjoyed the session!

The 7-day NSS camp organized by the Chandigarh College of Education kicked off with the Blood donation drive in association with PGI, Chandigarh, and Rotary Club, Kharar. The chief guest for the event was DSP Rupinder Deep Kaur Sohi, Head Anti Corruption Action Line, Punjab, and Mr. Yadwinder Singh Virk, Assistant Director, Youth Affairs, Punjab State Aids Control Society was also present. Rotary Club President Sh. Kamal Deep Singh Tiwana, President, Dr. Manish Sanolia, Chairman, and other Rotarians boosted the morale of the students and appreciated the efforts put in to make it a huge success wherein more than 250 units of blood got collected truly showing the spirit of social responsibility which the institute has inculcated among the students.

Chandigarh Business School of Administration organized a two-day "Banking and Finance Conclave 2022" for MBA students under the theme "DIGITAL FINANCIAL LITERACY AND INCLUSION TOWARDS PROSPERITY". Dr. Anil Kumar Yadav General Manager, Reserve Bank of India, Chandigarh, Mr. Iqbal Singh Founder & Managing Director, Innovative Financial Management Pvt. Ltd and Mr. Dinesh Seth, Senior Vice President & Zonal Head, HDFC Bank, Chandigarh shared their thoughts on digital financial literacy, and demonetization and also encouraged the students for BFSI career opportunities and involved them in a lot of engaging activities.

A moment of great pride yet again as Chandigarh Engineering College has been conferred with numerous rankings in the Dataquest Tech School Survey, 2022 an Indian magazine published by CyberMedia India Ltd, South Asia's largest specialty media group.

Now proudly standing tall on the 1st position in Punjab and 9th Rank in North and securing the 17th position among the Top T Schools (Pvt). It has also clinched Rank 29 among Top T Schools India (Govt & Private). Chandigarh Engineering College has once again proved its mettle by delivering excellence in technical education.

TOP T SCHOOL RANKING BY DATAQUEST

Outshining Once Again
Chandigarh Engineering College Secures

RANK 1ST
in Punjab

RANK 9TH
in North India

RANK 17TH
Top T School
(Private)

RANK 29TH
Top T School
(Govt. & Private)

CGC'ians do it once again adding another achievement and making the Institute proud. as our students participated in the 4th National level working model competition, "Navdhara 2022" at Dev Bhoomi Uttarakhand University recently. One of our teams working on a 3D working model bagged the first prize of Rs. 1 Lac while the other team working model of Agriculture Drone received a consolation prize worth Rs. Ten thousand.

Intending to foster an environment of creativity, innovation, and out of normal thinking, ACICRISE Association celebrated the Community Day. Students of Gilco International School, Kharar, and Learning Paths School were invited over and exposed to the new skills and resources available at the center set up by AIM NITI Aayog. Students seemed to have thoroughly enjoyed the session and participated in the design thinking workshop. They also tried their hands-on drone simulator, 3 D printer, and Jarvis, an Artificial Intelligence (AI) based assistant. Overall it was a very engaging and fun-filled celebration.

Stupendous performances marked the International Dance Day celebration 'Nritya Dastaan', organized by the Department of Student Welfare. Students from all the departments exhibited their finest dancing skills and competed against each other for the winning titles.

Listed are the winners:

Best Team

1st position – Shivaholic (BBA)

2nd position – Rooh Punjab di (B.Ed)

Best Dancer Male – Garvit (MBA)

Best Dancer Female – Garima (DCA)

